

In thesis European Voluntary Service in the context of the YOUTH program I tent to deal with the EU program for non A formal education and training YOUTH 2000 A 2006, with special focus on the Event No. 2 of this program, the European Voluntary Service. I seek to define the objectives of the program and Action No. 2 and analyze the final reports to determine whether these objectives have been met. In the practical part I want to examine the experience of participants in the European Voluntary Service on questionnaire survey. The aim of the questionnaire was to map the process of each project, motivation and expectations of volunteers and their fulfilling. They also help to answer the question of impletion of the general objectives of the YOUTH program.
